

Nico Nolledo, CEO of Xurpas Inc, in the U.S. June 10-18 Meeting with U.S. Investors

SAN FRANCISCO, CA—June 4, 2015 – Mr. Nico Nolledo, CEO of Xurpas Inc (X PM), will be in the U.S. June 10-18 meeting with U.S.-based global investors. Xurpas is currently pursuing growth plans to extend its leadership in mobile content and other e-commerce services from the Philippines into other countries in the region.

Mr. Nolledo will be hosted in the U.S. by Decker & Co, an institutional broker with offices in Bangkok and Menlo Park, Calif. While visiting, Mr. Nolledo will be in cities on both the east and west coasts as well as the central U.S. This is his first such trip to meet foreign investors since Xurpas' public listing approximately five months ago.

Topics for Mr. Nolledo's discussions with investors will include Xurpas' main business of digital content for mobile phones, as well as its newly acquired "Storm Flex System" that allows employees to convert benefits into cash. Mr. Nolledo will discuss with U.S.-based investors this expansion into the broader e-commerce space and the company's geographic growth prospects—including into the markets of Indonesia, Thailand, and Bangladesh.

"We are pleased to host Nico Nolledo in the U.S. and facilitate these opportunities for global investors to meet outstanding business leaders such as Mr. Nolledo who are driving growth and innovation throughout the ASEAN region," said Mark Decker, founder and president of Decker & Co.
